

FOOTBALL GAMES TODAY WILL HOLD CENTER OF STAGE

Some Famous Eleven's Will Meet and Battle for Supremacy; Outcome of Contests Watched With Interest

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE
New York, Oct. 6.—Intercollegiate football games will be the feature of eastern sports today. Five of the leading southern universities will compete upon gridirons in this section. The University of Virginia will play Yale, over which it triumphed by a 16 to 0 score last year. Princeton will have North Carolina as an opponent; West Virginia Wesleyan meets Washington and Jefferson, Western Maryland faces Fordham, while the Army will meet Washington and Lee university. The west also will be represented, for Ohio university will oppose Syracuse in the stadium of the latter university. The records of the invading southern and western eleven's last year show great scoring power and strong defensive strength and as they have retained a majority of the 1915 veterans it is expected that the home combinations will be forced to uncover something more than practice football. Among the more important east versus west games, Harvard will meet Tufts, Pennsylvania will play Franklin and Marshall, Navy faces Georgetown, Colgate tackles Maine, Brown has Trinity as an opponent, Williams opposes Union, Columbia goes up against Hamilton, Pennsylvania state meets Bucknell and Lafayette plays Swarthmore. Last fall Georgetown defeated the Navy, Brown and Trinity played a no-score tie, and Union defeated Williams. The contests in a majority of the other games were close.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN SEASON OPENS WITH ONE GAME

Denver, Colo., Oct. 6.—Only one Rocky Mountain intercollegiate conference football game is scheduled to be played tomorrow, the University of Colorado and the University of Wyoming at Laramie. Interest has been taken in an intercollegiate contest at Colorado Springs, where the University of New Mexico and Colorado college meet for the first time.

Tomorrow's game will be the opening contest of the season for the University of Colorado and the strength which the new coach, M. C. Evans, has been able to inject into the machine is expected to make their first game of the year a stiff combat.

CHASE FOR VALLEY TITLE GETS UNDER WAY TODAY

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 6.—With the games tomorrow, all of the football teams of the Missouri valley conference will have opened their 1916 season and the chase for the valley title, now held by Nebraska, again will be fully under way. All conference eleven's will play tomorrow, excepting the Kansas Aggies, who met Southwestern at Manhattan today. Nebraska, Missouri and Washington will open their schedules with games on their home grounds, the Cornhuskers playing Drake between the first two conference games, the Tigers contesting with Central college of Fayette, and the St. Louis squad meeting Rose Polytechnic. Ames will play Highland Park at Ames.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL OPENS IN CENTRAL STATES TODAY

TOPEKA'S CLUB IN THE WESTERN LEAGUE TO BE TRANSFERRED

TOPEKA, Kan., Oct. 6.—The Topeka Western league baseball club will be moved to some other city, probably Peoria, Ill., or Kansas City, Kan., of some town, according to an announcement made here today by John Savage, owner of the club. "I cannot keep the team here," said Savage. "And I expect to make the change within fifteen days. The final arrangements have not been made."

SOME THINGS THAT MAY BE OF INTEREST CONCERNING RED SOX

There is not much new to tell about the Boston Red Sox, champions of the American league, twice winners in a world's series, and again contenders, with every prospect they will be winners again. The most discussed feature of Carrigan's team, in fact, is not what it has, but what it has lost—and still able to show the way against all its rivals. After losing Tris Speaker and Joe Wood some baseball humorists facetiously remarked that he would like to see the Red Sox minus Ruth, Leonard, Hooper and Lewis, just to learn if Carrigan with what he had left couldn't make a runaway race of it.

Newcomers on the team are Clarence Walker and Charley Shorten, both outfielders, and both are likely to get in the big games, one making outliners, the other making right-handers. For Manager Carrigan has taken a hint from George Stallings and believes in the new idea. Walker, as the successor of Tris Speaker in the regular line-up of the champions, will attract a lot of attention. He has had a hard row to hoe to Boston, because of the preference of Ruth fans to compare him with Speaker, and it is to his credit that he has made them like him. There are a few faithful ideas on Boston players—a bit out of the dry run of statistics—that may be of interest to the fans who follow their fortunes.

Oldest player on club, Heinie Wagner, this veteran, who is 32 years old, is warming the bench, but is highly regarded as an adviser by Manager Carrigan.

Youngest player on the team, George (Hubby) Ruth, Ruth does not look the part, but he's the baby of the world's champions. He has been only 22 summers. That's why he was nicknamed Babe.

Oldest member of the Red Sox team in point of service on the club, Manager William Carrigan, the Red Sox manager joined the Sox team in 1906, coming direct from Holy Cross college. He was sent to Toronto for more experience and recalled in 1908.

Shortest player, Charley Hendrickson, this midget is not so short as some imagine. He is a giant in comparison to Nemo Leibold of the White Sox. Hendrickson is 5 feet 1 1/2 inches in height. Leibold is 5 feet 1 1/2.

Tallest player, Ernest Shore. This elongated slab specimen is 6 feet 4 inches in height. Only one player in the American league has anything on Shore for height. He is Carl Wellman of the St. Louis Browns, who stands 6 feet 5 1/2 inches. Bill James of the Detroit Tigers is 6 feet 2 inches tall.

Most careful dresser, Clarence Walker. This player is the lean dynamo of the world's champions. He assumed the title when Fielder Jones said him to be the Boston club. "Tidy" as he is popularly known in baseball circles, has to submit to considerable criticism from hostile crowds around the American league, but the fans in Boston finally have been won to him and now are strong for this player. They applaud him every time he steps to the plate.

Greatest fielding outfielder, Harry Hooper. This player's phenomenal catches in the world's series of 1912 and 1915 are still fresh in the minds of those who saw those post-season classics. Hooper has robbed more players of base hits than any other outfielder this season, with the possible exception of Tris Speaker.

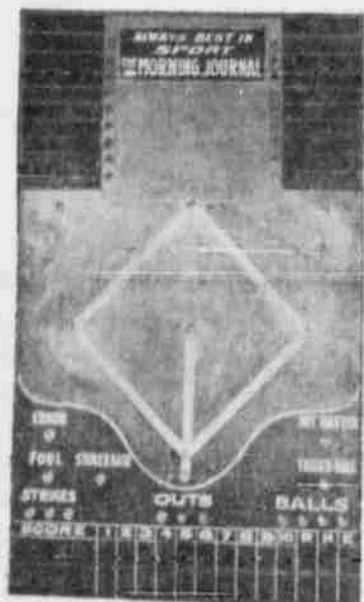

Greatest thrower, Duffy Lewis. There is no more accurate heaving outfielder in baseball than Lewis. He has almost sure death from a runner to try to score from third base on a fly ball when Lewis is handling the ball.

Best fielding infielder, Jack Barry. They say that Barry will be in the world's series. If he comes back, it will be a great boost to the Red Sox. He's the brains of the Boston infield.

Most dangerous hitter this season, Larry Gardner. This third baseman is the most feared batsman on the Boston club. Opposing pitchers were ordered to hurl bad balls to Larry or else walk him on malicious occasions.

Luckiest player on the team, Jack Barry. This player has participated in the series of five world's series. He was in four of the world's series as a member of the Athletics and once with the Red Sox. This will be his sixth. He has gathered in about $15,000 from this source and has received a fat salary in addition to other accumulations.

World Series Plays Hot From the Bat at Journal Scoreboard

Every thirty-third degree baseball fan is cordially invited to pass up lunch today and come to the vacant lot just off the Journal building at noon to see the first game of the world series played on the Journal's electric scoreboard, plus play.

The scoreboard was placed in position yesterday afternoon, the electric connections made and a thorough test given the device to see that everything was working in perfect order. The scoreboard will be operated by L. E. Tardes, the grand high master of all the Albuquerque fans, and the play will be dubbed out to the waiting crowd as fast as Associated Press Operator Paul Joyner can grab 'em off of the Journal's special leased wire.

The Journal has the only electric baseball scoreboard in New Mexico, and it invites all its friends to come out today and see the board at work in taking the baseball classic of the year. The game will be called at 1:00 p.m. and will be called at 2:00 p.m. eastern time, the same being high noon in Albuquerque. Come early so as not to miss anything.

EMMA MAGOWAN WINS LEXINGTON STAKE IN HANDY FASHION

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 6.—Emma Magowan won the Lexington, the second year-old stake, in handily fashion at the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' association meeting here today, trotting the two heats in 2:05 1/2 and 2:07 1/2, which makes the third fastest 2-year-old race on record.

Magowan, winning the Hilda Grass stake after 10 starts, showed the best speed of the day. In the second heat he passed the last half in 2:05 1/2 and the last quarter in 2:05 1/2. Magowan, driven by Marvin Childs, won the opening feature in straight heats, but only after three hard battles with Jay Hill and Young Todd.

The 2 1/2 year old developed the hardest race five heats being required. Baby Doll got the first money by winning the second third and fifth heats. Magowan won the first heat and second money. In the second heat George Patterson and Jeanette Sneed ran together in the first turn and Sneed was thrown from the saddle but was not injured. The horses were placed by the judges because they considered it an unavoidable accident.

In total to win 2:17 1/2 trotting finish Magowan 12:10, by General Watts, trotted in 2:05 1/2, the fastest mile of the year by a 2-year-old out.

CARPENTIER IS TOO BUSY IN FRANCE TO MEET JACK DILLON

PARIS, Oct. 6.—The French front in France, Oct. 6: 29 p.m.—George Carpentier, heavyweight champion of Europe, was interviewed today by special permission, regarding an offer from fight promoters in America to meet Jack Dillon in New York.

"I had already refused 200,000 francs for two twenty-round contests in San Francisco early in 1915," said Carpentier. "I am too busy on the French front to take up such things at the present time. When the war is over I will be glad to visit my friends in the United States."

Carpentier declared his willingness to meet Dillon when free to do so and said he would be only too glad to take on Jess Willard subsequently.

RIFLE SHOOT TO OPEN SUNDAY AT A. R. A.'S RANGE

Executive Officer Announces Regulations for Competition Which Will Determine New Mexico Team.

Capt. W. P. Himes, executive officer of the military rifle competition which will determine the make-up of New Mexico's civilian team, announced yesterday that everything was in readiness for the shoot. The shoot is to be held at the Albuquerque rifle association's range, where the state fair matches were held, east of Santa Barbara cemetery. The competition will open Sunday, and last two days. The team will leave Tuesday for Jacksonville, Fla., to enter the national rifle matches.

Captain Himes announced the following regulations:

Any bona fide member of the following clubs will be entitled to compete in the match, provided he has a certificate from the secretary of his club to the effect that he is a member in good standing in both his own local club and the National Rifle association. Forest Service, Lordsburg, Alamosa, Socorro, Tyrone, Magdalena, Albuquerque, Duke City, Trojan, Clayton, Dawson, Deming, Gallup, Harley, Kelly, Lamy, Las Vegas, Roswell, San Marcel, Watson, Mound, Silver City, Santa Fe and Gibson.

All members must have a certificate and present them to executive officer, Captain Himes, before they can enter the shoot.

Only three ranges will be shot, as follows:

Two hundred yards, rapid fire, position standing; time, 2 minutes; target, "A"; two sighting and five record shots.

Six hundred yards, slow fire, position prone; target, "B"; two sighting and five record shots.

One thousand yards, slow fire, position prone; two sighting and five record shots.

Only the record shots to be used in computing the record score, the sighting shots to be used only in case of a tie on record score.

No competitor will be allowed to fire more than the prescribed shots on any course, one time over the whole course to be counted as a record for the whole course and a selection of a team to be based on the records made in the one time over the course.

Firing will start promptly at 8 a.m. and last till 4 p.m. Competitors will start at 200 yards and work back to 1,000 yards.

There will be no switching of targets to accommodate competitors at different ranges at different times, as the 200, 400 and 1,000-yard ranges will be shot in the order named. It is therefore necessary that all members be on the range at 8 a.m.

In all cases the shoot will be governed by the latest United States small arms firing regulations.

HIGHS TO OPEN GRIDIRON SEASON THIS AFTERNOON

Football will make its bow to Albuquerque today for the 1916 season. The high school and Menaul school teams will oppose each other in the first gridiron contest this season.

They will meet at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at Hopewell field.

The high school appears to have an edge on Menaul in the fact that its entire backfield is made up of veterans and seasoned players make up the greater part of its first line of defense. In the absence of John on the Menaul team the question of superiority in speed and weight is open.

Menaul may be the high school's superior in either of these departments and again it may not. The high average weight is 121 pounds.

The high school squad has been practicing for three weeks under the direction of Coach Kraemer. Roy Repp, the former coach, also has been taking a hand occasionally in the drilling of the high squad. Twenty students have been out for practice.

The teams will line up this afternoon as follows:

High school—Barton (captain) G. Pence II, Snodgrass, Mann, R. Chavez, Jr., Greenleaf, R. Lanthorn, R. Silva, Jr., S. Bradley, R. Gilbert, R. Sandoval and R. H. H. H.

Menaul—Redondo and Roswell, C. Garcia and Gonzales, L. Sanfeliciano and Vola, R. A. Gonzales, R. Martinez, R. Baez, L. E. Martinez, R. H. H. H.

The high school's schedule has not been completed as yet. Manager F. Barton, however, expects to schedule at least one out-of-town game. This game will be played "Thanksgiving" the high school played here last Thanksgiving.

BRIGADIER GENERAL TO CONFER WITH FUNSTON

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Oct. 6.—Brig. Gen. E. H. Crowder, legion advocate general of army, arrived here today for a conference with General Funston. He will see the latter upon his return from Laredo tomorrow.

General Crowder intends visiting points along the border before returning to Washington.

EAST HAS BIG EDGE ON WORLD'S SERIES

For the sixth time in as many years the contesting teams in the world's series games are both eastern clubs. Not since 1910 has a western team in either league won the pennant of its organization. The last time a western team appeared in the series was in 1910, when the Athletics defeated the Cubs four games to one in a five-game series.

Previous to 1910, however, the contesting teams were all western aggregations for four seasons beginning with 1898, with the series between the two Chicago teams. Not since the contests between American and National leagues began in 1903 has a western team won the world's championship when pitted against an eastern team, although, curiously enough, in last two years of the fourteen in the history of the world's series have both sections been represented, Boston Americans defeating Pittsburgh in 1905, and the Athletics dethroning the Cubs in 1910, the last appearance of a western team in the series. Taken as a whole, the eastern teams have a long lead in the race for the blue ribbon. The world's championship has been won eight times by eastern teams as against four times by western teams, with two eastern teams champions of both leagues in 1904, when no series was played.

Here are the results of all world's series played between American and National league clubs:

Year.	Contenders.	Winner.
1903	Red Sox-Pirates	Red Sox
1905	Giants-Athletics	Giants
1906	White Sox-Cubs	White Sox
1907	Cubs-Tigers	Cubs
1908	Cubs-Tigers	Cubs
1909	Pirates-Tigers	Pirates
1910	Athletics-Cubs	Athletics
1911	Athletics-Giants	Athletics
1912	Red Sox-Giants	Red Sox
1913	Athletics-Giants	Athletics
1914	Braves-Athletics	Braves
1915	Red Sox-Phillies	Red Sox

MAN, ANSWERING DESCRIPTION OF BURGLAR, HELD

Henry Mazen to Be Brought Here From Las Vegas So Persons Who Saw Prowler May See Him.

There is a possibility, the police believe, that Henry Mazen, negro, arrested at Las Vegas, is the man who committed the series of burglaries here. The possibility is slim, they admit, but they are overlooking nothing in their efforts to catch the man, so Mazen will be brought to Albuquerque to undergo the "once over" of persons who saw the burglar.

Las Vegas police arrested Mazen upon Chief J. R. Galusha's description. The chief outlined the description from two women who saw the burglar. One was the girl who frightened him away from Edna Romero's home, 424 West Silver avenue. He struck a match and she saw him plainly. She said he was a light negro. The other woman, who lives at 219 South Walter street, gave a description that corresponded to the girl's. Other descriptions obtained by the police from persons who saw the burglar have shown some variation.

Mazen had nothing that had been stolen from any of the burglarized homes in his possession when he was arrested at Las Vegas. He had a woman's watch, engraved with the letters "L. V." and a chain. He also had pawn tickets, showing that he had pawned jewelry in Colorado Springs, Colo., Chief Ben Cole of Las Vegas informed Chief J. R. Galusha. Mazen had delivered a bundle of clothes to an express company, to be sent to Denver, before his arrest. Chief Cole said.

The police department was without authority to bring Mazen back with no felony charged against him. In view of the fact that there is no evidence against him, unless he can be identified, and not wishing to let even possibility slip through their fingers, the police asked the sheriff's office to help. Under Sheriff Dick Lewis agreed to bring Mazen to Albuquerque so that persons who saw the burglar may identify him or remove suspicion from him.

Chief Mule and Boggs, Brownsville, Tex., Oct. 6.—Last night's landst activity near San Benito consisted of the activities of four or five Mexicans who stole a mule and a burglar from a farmer, eight miles from San Benito, according to an official report made today by Col. E. L. Bulford, commanding there. Colonel Bulford said a detachment of the Fourth South Dakota Infantry, in command of Colonel Wales, took up the trail but lost it.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hunt came from El Paso yesterday morning and were the guests during the day of Mr. N. Y. Walton and Mrs. W. H. Springer, mother and sister, respectively, of Mrs. Hunt. ESTABROOK TO SPEAK TONIGHT TO REPUBLICANS

New York Attorney Fails to Arrive at Time He Was Expected, but Will Come Later.

Henry D. Estabrook failed to reach Albuquerque yesterday morning, as City Clerk Thomas Hughes, president of the Hughes-Fairbanks club, had been informed he would. Mr. Hughes learned that he would not come shortly before the arrival of the train on which he was expected. Members of the republican committee, appointed to meet Mr. Estabrook, whom Mr. Hughes was not able to reach, were at the Santa Fe station when the train pulled in and saw Mr. Estabrook, surprised.

Mr. Estabrook was not expected to speak here until tonight. Information received by Mr. Hughes Thursday was that he would not here a short time. He will come on Santa Fe train No. 1, arriving at 7:29 o'clock, and will go on the platform at the Hughes-Fairbanks club's quarters thirty minutes later.

The club president yesterday, announced the personnel of the committee that will meet the speaker at the Santa Fe station. Frank Ackerman, Harry B. Cornell, Alfred Grunstead, Judge John Byron Burg, Judge George R. Craig, John W. Wilson, M. E. Hickey and Sheriff Jesse Romero are members of the committee. The club has hired a band to meet the train also.

Mr. Estabrook, who is a lawyer of New York City, has delivered many orations on notable occasions, speaking on political, legal and patriotic subjects. Many of his orations have been published. His standing in the republican party is shown by the record of the last Chicago convention. He was one of the men considered at the convention as the party's candidate for president. He was nominated for candidate.

Mr. Hughes learned yesterday from the state republican committee that another notable republican speaker would speak in Albuquerque soon. He is Senator Albert H. Cummings of Iowa. Senator Cummings will speak before the Hughes-Fairbanks club the night of October 20.
